

I'm Ritu Shukla

As a Learning Partner, I specialise in communication skills, behavioural training and leadership interventions. I am a theatre practitioner and an emotional intelligence expert with a deep understanding of human behaviour that helps me connect with people across age groups and professions. With over 2000 hours of training experience in leadership and behavioural trainings and interventions, I have coached mid to senior level managers in multinational corporations as well as startups to facilitate their path of growth. An expert in team dynamics, I am excellent at outbound programs. Known for my ability to build relationships that endure and align training to goals to deliver dynamic results, my workshops are known for the powerful and embodied experience that participants feel that brings about enduring change.

When I'm not busy sharing ideas in workshops, I love travelling, meeting new people and exploring places with rich history.
